Behind every thriving church, chapel or meeting house is a team of dedicated volunteers. Across the UK, these individuals care for historic buildings, preserve their heritage, welcome visitors, and create spaces that strengthen local communities.

Much of this work happens behind the scenes, but its impact is enormous. From maintaining and conserving church buildings to opening doors and sharing their stories, volunteers help ensure these special places remain vibrant, welcoming and relevant. They host foodbanks, warm hubs, cafés, support groups and countless other activities that bring people together and provide vital support.

These awards celebrate the people whose commitment helps churches thrive in three ways:

- by caring for and conserving the fabric of the building
- by using the space to serve local communities through events, services and support
- by opening their doors and sharing their stories with visitors.

Whether you're offering a warm welcome, caring for a historic building, or creating opportunities for your community to come together, we want to hear about the difference you're making.

Volunteers from any church, chapel or meeting house can be nominated for these awards.

We want to celebrate the geographic spread of the great work that exists in caring for churches in all four nations, across the UK.

You will need to be able to tell us about the people involved, the fantastic things you do and the difference that it makes. Your nomination will be reviewed by an expert panel.

We will award one winner in each of the four UK nations.

Church of the Year

The Church of the Year award is the highest honour at the National Church Awards. It celebrates a church that fulfils its potential and makes a lasting impact on its community and beyond. It should be a shining example of a sustainable church - well maintained, valued and in use.

We know it can be difficult to recognise your own achievements, but churches across the UK are doing remarkable things every day. By entering, you help us celebrate and share everyone's good work.

A thriving church is more than a building. It is a place that welcomes people, supports worship and community life, is cared for by committed volunteers, and is proud to share its story. Whether you feel you have already achieved this vision or are still working towards it, we want to hear your story.

The Church of the Year winner is selected from the winners of our other award categories.
