

Order Form

Free Seats for All* by Gill Hedley

Paperback book published by Umbria Press

Order price: £15.00 (RRP £20.00)

An astonishing number of churches were built and hundreds of thousands of new spaces provided in parish churches in the years after Waterloo. Much of this work was carried out thanks to the work of the Incorporated Church Building Society (ICBS).

The story of church building after Waterloo, written by Gill Hedley, is full of fascinating detail about the people who helped set up the ICBS and about the thousands of churches supported by its grants.

2018 sees the bicentenary of the Incorporated Church Building Society, whose work is continued today by the National Churches Trust. With a message of support from our Vice Patron, HRH The Duke of Gloucester, and a foreword by our Vice President Bettany Hughes, this book is a must-read for anyone with an interest in the history of churches.

Your order

Free Seats for All* by Gill Hedley

I would like to order copies at the special price of £15 each

I enclose cash/a cheque/a postal order for £..... made payable to the National Churches Trust

Your name:

Your address:

Your telephone number:

We will only phone you if we have a query about this specific order and will not use this number for any other purposes. We do not sell or swap your details with any other organisation and will keep your details private and store them securely.

For people who love church buildings