

Working together: celebrating and supporting churches through our network

Merchant Taylors' Hall, York, Thursday 19 May 2016

10:00 onwards Registration and coffee

10.30 Welcome

- Tom Ramsden, Chairman, Yorkshire Historic Churches Trust
- John Mills, Chairman, Churches Trusts Forum and Hon. Secretary, Devon Historic Churches Trust
- Luke March, Chairman, National Churches Trust

11.00 "Stained Glass Conservation in the 21st Century" - Sarah Brown, Director of the York Glaziers Trust

11.45 "Places of Worship and the Heritage Lottery Fund" – Katharine Boardman and Louise Clare, Heritage Lottery Fund

12.10 comfort break

12.15 "The word on The Street: conservation and heritage projects in The Street Benefice (North Yorkshire)"
Dr Kate Giles, University of York

12.45 "A little money can go a long way!" The Very Reverend Jonathan Greener, Dean of Wakefield

13.05 Lunch

13.50 Welcome back

13.55 Announcement: The Marsh Award for Innovative Projects winners

14.15 "Inspired Futures – regenerating churches" – Andrew Duff and David Lovie

14.40 Fundraising Workshop & Discussion Groups on partnership and working together

15.15 Tea

15.30 Fundraising Workshop & Discussion Groups on partnership and working together

16.10 Review and Close

16.15-18.00 – A history of Merchant Taylors' Hall followed by Evensong in York Minster

